

MENTAL HEALTH NURSES

- Range of opportunities • Broaden your nursing skills
- Values based organisation

First class training within an environment of excellence.

Located within the heart of Auckland and with a staff of more than 10,000, we serve 10% of the country's population with excellent primary, secondary, tertiary and quaternary services. We are New Zealand's largest clinical research facility and are aligned with University of Auckland's Health Sciences School. Committed to ongoing professional development, we strive for better treatment and models of best practice in New Zealand.

As a mental health nursing workforce we are dedicated to:

- people centred, service user nursing care
- values based mental health nursing care that has duty of care central to enabling people's wellness
- working towards high quality care in an environment that invests in innovative good quality workforce development

We have current full-time and part-time job opportunities for skilled Mental Health Nurses in the following services:

*Acute Inpatient Unit, Auckland Hospital
Buchanan Rehabilitation Centre, Pt Chevalier
Manawanui Mental Health Services for Maori (Community), Pt Chevalier
Taylor Centre, Community Mental Health Centre, Ponsonby
Cornwall House, Community Mental Health Centre, Greenlane
Lotofale Pacific Mental Health Service (Community), Greenlane
Manaaki House, Community Mental Health Centre, Panmure*

Vacancies within the community mental health services cover a range of roles, including Case Manager, Community Acute Services, Assertive Community Outreach Service and Referrals Management nursing posts.

We welcome interest for 3-6 month fixed-term within the Acute Inpatient Unit. Relocation packages are available, even for the fixed-term opportunities.

Registration with New Zealand Nursing Council as an RN (comp), with PG cert in Mental Health and/or experience in MH speciality, or RPN and a current Practising Certificate are essential as well as a full, clean New Zealand driver's licence.
