Nurse Director, Perioperative & Clinical Support Services

- Key senior leadership role
- Drive innovation & performance improvement

We have an outstanding career opportunity for an experienced and motivated leader to move into this exiting senior role and really drive positive outcomes in the area of Perioperative & Clinical Support Services within one of New Zealand's largest and most respected teaching hospitals. The Nurse Director will work within a passionate team and be responsible for the professional governance and clinical quality of ADHB's operating room and clinical support nursing services.

As a member of the senior leadership team you will partner the General Manager - Operations & Clinical Support Services, the Director of Surgery and Director of Perioperative Services & Clinical Support to ensure perioperative services meet agreed surgical performance requirements and budget. Reporting to the Executive Director of Nursing you will lead quality improvement initiatives to improve patient safety and the implementation of the ADHB Healthcare Excellence framework.

You will be a solutions focused, pro-active self-starter who has a new and innovative approach and is inspired to use their management and clinical credibility to sell your vision and galvanise support.

You will be a New Zealand Registered Comprehensive Nurse (or equivalent) with a current practicing certificate.

If you have proven success in a nursing leadership, operational management and process improvement role, can articulate an intimate knowledge and understanding of professional nursing practice, strategy formulation and implementation; and be acknowledged for setting high ethical and professional standards then this is the opportunity for you.
