Assistant Head of School, Nursing

The School of Nursing provides a range of programmes including the Master of Nursing, Postgraduate Certificate and Diploma in Health Science, Bachelor of Nursing and Certificate in Contemporary NZ Nursing Practice.

This role will encompass responsibility for:

- Strategic and academic leadership for the School, in association with the Head of School
- Oversight of the Bachelor of Nursing, Certificate in Health Science, and Cervical Screening programmes, as negotiated with the Head of School
- Efficient, professional day-to-day management of staff teaching primarily in the BN, Nursing Practicum Manager, Clinical Arts and Technology Centre Coordinator and others as may be negotiated with the Head of School
- Team leadership to ensure we meet commitments to our students and stakeholders
- Programme staffing and operating budgets and other targets as negotiated annually.

The ideal candidate will have experience in undergraduate nursing education and successful management experience.

You will hold an appropriate Masters qualification and be a NZ registered nurse with current annual practising certificate.
