

Associate Professor – Nursing

School of Nursing

Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences

Vacancy Number: 13493

Applications are invited for an Associate Professor position in the School of Nursing with a special interest in the fields of Primary Health Care and Health Services Research. However, other areas of research interests will be considered. Level of appointment will reflect successful candidate's experience.

The Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences have established graduate and undergraduate programmes in Nursing. This allows nursing to develop as a University discipline and educates nurses alongside doctors and other health professionals within an environment of scholarship and research.

The successful applicant will be expected to undertake research in nursing, foster development of research and provide academic leadership in nursing.

Applications will be considered from candidates qualified at doctorate level in nursing with a well-established research record in the specified fields.

Candidates must hold a nursing qualification and be registerable as a nurse in New Zealand or hold a PhD in any related health field. Candidates should have experience in teaching and supervising nursing students.

Enquiries of an academic nature should be directed to Associate Professor Judy Kilpatrick, telephone 64-9-373 7599 ext. 82897 or email j.kilpatrick@auckland.ac.nz

Applications close 4 November 2011.

For further information go to www.auckland.ac.nz/opportunities

The University has an equity policy and welcomes applications from all qualified persons.

The University is committed to meeting its obligations under the Treaty of Waitangi and achieving equity outcomes for staff and students.

THE UNIVERSITY OF AUCKLAND

NEW ZEALAND

Te Whare Wānanga o Tāmaki Makaurau