

Waitemata

District Health Board

Te Wai Awhina

Nurse Educator, Assessment and Diagnostic Unit North Shore Hospital (Fixed-term)

Waitemata District Health Board (WDHB) is a major provider of healthcare services in the Northern and Western Districts of Auckland. The nursing workforce works well together and is a place where opportunities to develop as a professional is encouraged and supported.

We are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic and motivated individual to the Nurse Educator position fixed-term position for one year in our new Acute Diagnostic Unit (ADU), at North Shore Hospital due to open in March 2011

As Nurse Educator you will lead nursing practice development and education in ADU and be part of the wider WDHB nurse educator group to provide service and organisation wide programmes. You will work alongside the staff of ADU to develop their skills and continuously improve the standard of nursing care through preparation of nurses for ongoing practice development, updating reference resources, challenging and coaching, role modelling practice excellence and auditing learning and practice outcomes.

If you have extensive experience with demonstrated commitment to professional leadership and team teaching quality care delivery and your own ongoing professional development, you are the right person for the job! Ideally, you will have recently completed or be studying toward a relevant postgraduate qualification.
